Africa Remix Simon Njami, 2007 Africa remix Contemporary art of a continent features the work of more than 85 artists from 25 countries on the African continent and the Diaspora Black Artists in British Art Eddie Chambers, 2014-07-29 Black artists have been making major contributions to the British art scene for decades since at least the mid twentieth century Sometimes these artists were regarded and embraced as practitioners of note At other times they faced challenges of visibility and in response they collaborated and made their own exhibitions and gallery spaces In this book Eddie Chambers tells the story of these artists from the 1950s onwards including recent developments and successes Black Artists in British Art makes a major contribution to British art history Beginning with discussions of the pioneering generation of artists such as Ronald Moody Aubrey Williams and Frank Bowling Chambers candidly discusses the problems and progression of several generations including contemporary artists such as Steve McQueen Chris Ofili and Yinka Shonibare Meticulously researched this important book tells the fascinating story of practitioners who have frequently been overlooked in the dominant history of twentieth century British art African Art Reframed Bennetta Jules-Rosette, J.R. Osborn, 2020-06-22 Once seen as a collection of artifacts and ritual objects African art now commands respect from museums and collectors Bennetta Jules Rosette and J R Osborn explore the reframing of African art through case studies of museums and galleries in the United States Europe and Africa The authors take a three pronged approach Part One ranges from curiosity cabinets to virtual websites to offer a history of ethnographic and art museums and look at their organization and methods of reaching out to the public In the second part the authors examine museums as ecosystems and communities within communities and they use semiotic methods to analyze images signs and symbols drawn from the experiences of curators and artists The third part introduces innovative strategies for displaying disseminating and reclaiming African art The authors also propose how to reinterpret the art inside and outside the museum and show ways of remixing the results Drawing on extensive conversations with curators collectors and artists African Art Reframed is an essential guide to building new exchanges and connections in the dynamic worlds of African and global art Contemporary British Artists of African Descent and the Unburdening of a Generation Monique Kerman, 2017-10-27 This book explores the notable roles that contemporary British artists of African descent have played in the multicultural context of postwar Britain In four key case studies Magdalene Odundo Veronica Ryan Mary Evans and Maria Amidu Monique Kerman charts their impact through analysis of works activities and exhibitions The author elucidates each of the artists creative response to their unique experience and examines how their work engages with issues of history identity diaspora and the distillation of diverse cultural sources The study also includes a comparative discussion of art broadly defined as black British in order to question assumptions concerning racial and ethnic identities that the artists often negotiate through their works particularly the expectation or burden of representing minority or marginalized communities Readers are thus challenged to unburden the artists herein and celebrate their work on its own terms Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy Notes from the Middle World Breyten Breytenbach, 2010-05-01 An acclaimed South African writer freedom fighter and artist illuminates the labyrinth of our political present Debating the Afropolitan Emilia María Durán-Almaraz, Ananya Jahanara Kabir, Carla Rodríguez González, 2020-05-21 This volume evaluates the vitality of the term Afropolitan within the fields of African and Afro diasporic studies A hotly debated and malleable term its wide circulation has allowed for Afropolitanism to become a contested space for critical inquiry The contributions to this book are representative of the lively discussions that Afropolitan aesthetics identity politics and Afro cosmo politanisms have sparked in recent years The book aims to continue the debates around these concepts foregrounded by earlier works in the fields of postcolonial literature African cultural studies and studies of diaspora and transnationalism This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies Exploring Materiality and Connectivity in Anthropology and Beyond Philipp Schorch, Martin Saxer, Marlen Elders, 2020-03-30 Exploring Materiality and Connectivity in Anthropology and Beyond provides a new look at the old anthropological concern with materiality and connectivity It understands materiality not as defined property of some thing nor does it take connectivity as merely a relation between discrete entities Somewhat akin to Heisenberg's uncertainty principle it sees materiality and connectivity as two interrelated modes in which an entity is or more precisely is becoming in the world The question thus is how these two modes of becoming relate and fold into each other Throughout the four year research process that led to this book the authors approached this question not just from a theoretical perspective taking the suggestion of thinking through things literally and methodologically seriously the first two workshops were dedicated to practical hands on exercises working with things From these workshops a series of installations emerged straddling the boundaries of art and academia These installations served as artistic academic interventions during the final symposium and are featured alongside the other academic contributions to this volume Throughout this process two main themes emerged and structure Part II Movement and Growth and Part III Dissolution and Traces of the present volume respectively Part I Conceptual Grounds consists of two chapters offering conceptual takes on things and ties one from anthropology and one from archaeology As interrelated modes of becoming materiality and connectivity make it necessary to coalesce things and ties into thing ties an insight toward which the chapters and interventions came from different sides and one in which the initial proposition of the editors still shines through Throughout the pages of this volume we invite the reader to travel beyond imaginaries of a universe of separate planets united by connections and to venture with us instead into the thicket of thing ties in which we live

Afropolitan Literature as World Literature James Hodapp, 2020-01-23 African literature has never been more visible than it is today Whereas Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong'o defined a golden generation of African writers in the 20th century a new generation of Afropolitan writers including Chimamanda Adichie Teju Cole Taiye Selasi and NoViolet Bulawayo have taken the world by storm by snatching up prestigious awards and selling millions of copies of their works But what is the new increasingly fashionable and marketable Afropolitan vision of Africa's place in the world that they offer How does it differ from that of previous generations Why do some dissent Afropolitanism refuses to reinforce images of Africa in world media as merely poor war torn diseased and constantly falling into chaos By complicating the image of Africa as a hapless victim Afropolitanism focuses on the wide ranging influence Africa has on the world However some have characterized this kind of writing as light populist fare that panders to Western audiences

Afropolitan Literature as World Literature examines the controversy surrounding Afropolitan literature in light of the unprecedented circulation of culture made possible by globalization and ultimately argues for expanding its geographic and temporal boundaries
