Israel in Africa Yotam Gidron,2020-04-15 Amidst the turmoil of the Middle East few have noticed the extent to which Israel has slowly but surely been building alliances on the African continent Facing a growing international backlash Israel has had to look beyond its traditional Western allies for support and many African governments in turn have been happy to receive Israeli political support security assistance investments and technology But what do these relationships mean for Africa and for wider geopolitics With an examination of Africa s authoritarian development politics the rise of Born Again Christianity and of Israel s thriving high tech and arms industries from the Israeli Palestinian conflict to the migration of Africans to Israel and back again Gidron provides a comprehensive analysis of the various forces and actors shaping Israel s controversial relationships with countries on the continent In particular the book demonstrates that Israel s interest in Africa forms part of a wider diplomatic effort aimed at blocking Palestine s pursuit of international recognition Though the scale of Israeli African engagements has been little appreciated until now the book reveals how contemporary African and Middle Eastern politics and societies interact and impact each other in profound ways

Broadcasting Apartheid TAL. ZALMANOVICH,2025-11-24 In Broadcasting Apartheid Tal Zalmanovich explores how television revolutionized the political landscape in postwar Britain and played a pivotal role in the international campaign against apartheid from 1950 to 1990 Drawing on case studies and a diverse array of sources Zalmanovich argues that television s ability to transcend geographical and temporal boundaries proved instrumental in building a global coalition against apartheid in South Africa Moreover she shows how the medium became a key battleground in the broader struggle for racial equality in Britain where debates over apartheid intersected with contemporary discussions about race immigration decolonization and Cold War politics
